

Art for Sale

Your name _____

Your teacher or chaperone will direct you to a gallery. Work with a partner.

One of you should pretend to be a salesperson. Try to sell your partner a work of art.

Find a work of art in this gallery to sell and write down the following:

Artist's name _____

Title of the work of art _____

Fill in the blanks below to prepare a persuasive statement that will help you sell this work of art:

You should buy this work of art because _____

_____

_____.

This work of art is special for three reasons:

First, _____

_____. Second, _____

_____.

Finally, _____

_____.

continues on next page

Art for Sale

Your name _____

Think of one reason why your partner would NOT want to buy this work of art.
Then, think of an argument against that and write it down below.

Example: *Some people may think that this work of art is too large.
However, the large size will really impress your friends.*

Some people may think that this work of art is _____
_____
_____
_____. However, _____
_____
_____.

Read your statement to your partner, the buyer. Did your partner agree to buy the artwork?
Now let your partner pretend to sell YOU a work of art.

SCHOOL

Education at the J. Paul Getty Museum

© 2010 J. Paul Getty Trust